

As a resident of Indiana I strongly request you do not attempt to weaken the current state laws regarding telemarketing by allowing financial institutions to telemarket to those residents protected by the Privacy Act.